The central feature is a long, low-profile bar with a light-colored wood-grain front and a dark grey countertop. Behind the bar, the wall is composed of large, rectangular panels with a subtle, wavy texture. Two vertical open shelving units are integrated into the wall, displaying various items: wine glasses, bottles, and small decorative objects. A modern pendant light fixture with three white cylindrical shades and copper-colored accents hangs centrally above the bar. On the bar counter, there are two beer bottles, a small wooden fruit stand with lemons and limes, and a few other small items.
