BRAND STORY

It's not always about creating new designs particularly for ceramic tiles. Innovation, technology advancement, teamwork and quality maintenance matters a lot as well. Under a well-established brand name, Velbon, since 2016, we work as a group of unbeatable businessmen, techno geeks, designers, innovators and managerial experts. Forget the vision and the mission of ours, the only motto we work for is to put a happy smile on our client's face and we left no stone unturned to fulfil our motto.

Approach always play a key role of intermediate between the brand and the end user. Better the approach of the brand, more the growth of the brand. The only approach throughout our production to be one of the most reputed brand of all time is not to follow market trends but to create and develop new trends for market with our all time fresh collection, advancement of technology and top notch customer services.

DESIGNED TO RISE WITH CONFIDENCE

Our step and riser fullbody collection is built for staircases that demand confidence and design. Each piece carries a self embossed texture created in house to deliver highly anti skid footing even in wet areas. The integrated bullnose edge feels smooth underfoot and protects the front line of every tread. Dense fullbody strength resists impact, chips, and daily traffic, keeping profiles true and stairs looking refined for years.

Choose from a wide color range that coordinates with wood looks, stone looks, and contemporary solids. Seamless tread to riser pairings ensure clean lines from the first step to the landing. Surfaces clean easily and keep their character with minimal care. Suitable for homes, hospitality, education, and outdoor entries, this collection turns every staircase into a calm, secure journey.
